ABOUT ME

I am a Georgian screenwriter based in Berlin. I began my professional career in finance, but filmmaking has always been my primary focus. I later moved from Tbilisi to Berlin to pursue work in narrative film. My projects often incorporate elements of dark humor and have gained recognition for their distinctive tone. Most recently, I was nominated for Best Dialogue in a Screenplay by the Ardélión Film Academy and was a semifinalist in the ScreenCraft Short Film Screenplay Competition. In addition to my film work, my photographic project The Red on White received an Honorable Mention in the Portrait (Amateur) category at the Chromatic Awards. I was born and raised in Tbilisi, Georgia, and have been studying at SRH Berlin for the past three years.
